

WOKING ASIAN BUSINESS FORUM

Woking Asian Business Forum

"Promoting Minority Ethnic Businesses"

WWW.WABF.ORG.UK

The Woking Asian Business Forum (WABF) exists to help promote, encourage and support the development of Asian businesses in the Borough of Woking

Tamara Abood is an Emmy award-winning TV producer.

She directed the first series of Brat Camp, and her list of credits includes Lads Army, That'll Teach 'Em, Channel Four's Dispatches and Millionaires' Mission!

Tamara was born in Pakistan, and before embarking on her career in television was a practising lawyer.

Tamara will sharing with us behind the scenes explanation of producing multi-million pound series

Shadow Minister for Community Cohesion and Social Action

Baroness Sayeeda Warsi is Shadow Minister for Community Cohesion and Social Action and is a member of David Cameron's Shadow Cabinet. She is a former Vice-Chairman of the Conservative Party and is Shadow Minister for the City of Sheffield.

In December 2007 Sayeeda participated in the successful mission to the Sudan to secure the release of the British teacher, Gillian Gibbons.

Sayeeda regularly appears in the broadcast media, including BBC's Question Time and Radio Four's Woman's Hour. Sayeeda has also written articles for the national and regional press.

Date: Monday 9th February 2009

Time: 19.30 – 21.00

Venue: The Lightbox
Chobham Road, Woking, Surrey,
GU21 4AA

Please book in advance to avoid disappointment as limited spaces are available. Closing dated 6th February 2009

Finger buffet Indian Food/ Vegetarian

Price: £10 per person Members
£20.00 Non-Members

Please send WABF Limited
Cheques to:- 5th Floor Hollywood House
Church Street East
WOKING GU21 6HJ
Tel 01483 710830
Fax 01483 771507

Company

Address

Tel

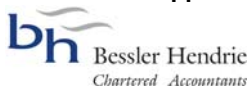

Attendees

Cheques made payable to "WABF Limited"

Confirm via Booking@wabf.org.uk
e-mail

Your email address

Supported by:

Media Sponsors

Affiliated by:

